Lambda*

Open to all majors

What is Phi Beta Lambda?

Phi Beta Lambda is the college version of Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA). It is a national organization that better prepares students for careers in business and business-related fields. Regardless of career field choice, business affects every area of employment. Thus, this organization is open to all Alice Lloyd College students regardless of their major or discipline.

Benefits of Joining Phi Beta Lambda

By becoming a member of Phi Beta Lambda, you gain the opportunity to:

1. Be part of a nationally recognized organization.
2. Acquire skills needed to compete in today's job market.
3. Enhance self-confidence and leadership skills.
4. Improve public speaking skills.
5. Travel to state and national conferences.

6. Compete at state and national levels.
7. Take part in community service projects.
8. Develop your resume.
9. Build lasting friendships with other members.

Phi Beta Lambda and Community Service

Phi Beta Lambda is known for its commitment to community service and Alice Lloyd College is certainly no exception to that fact. Over the years, Alice Lloyd College has participated in several community service projects including: Camp Hope, Walk for the Cure for the Susan G. Komen Foundation, Operation Christmas Child, and of course, Phi Beta Lambda's nationally-supported charity: March of Dimes.
