

A Tradition of Leadership Alice Lloyd College Caney Cottage Scholarship

Caney Cottage Scholarships

- Attend graduate or professional school at the University of Kentucky and receive room and utilities free at Berger Residence Hall (Caney Cottage), a modern apartment complex within walking distance of the University.
 - Receive cash scholarships for graduate programs at other colleges or universities.
- To be a Caney Scholar, you must:
- Have an overall 3.0 GPA in college work;
 - Complete a bachelor's degree or all appropriate class work and other ALC requirements;
 - Receive acceptance to graduate or professional school;
 - Complete a Caney Cottage Scholarship application, including character references;
 - Interview with the Caney Cottage Scholarship Committee;
 - Uphold the reputation of Alice Lloyd College while attending graduate or professional school.

It is a long-standing tradition for the College to support a select number of scholarly students from our 108-county service area who plan to attend graduate or professional schools upon completion of their programs at ALC. Caney Scholars attending the University of Kentucky are provided living quarters in ALC-owned housing near the campus. Scholars attending colleges and universities other than UK are granted cash scholarships toward expenses.

Contact the Admissions office at:

1.888.280.4ALC (4252)
email: admissions@alc.edu
www.alc.edu

Alice Lloyd College
100 Purpose Road
Pippa Passes, KY 41844

LeadershipU
ALICE LLOYD COLLEGE

Caney Cottage

www.alc.edu • 1.888.280.4ALC

Take a look at Berger Residence Hall

“Caney Cottage,” home to Caney Cottage Scholars who attend the University of Kentucky

444 Rose Lane, Lexington, KY

- A 13-unit apartment building constructed in 1992
- Apartments available for married and single students
- Each unit is furnished and includes appliances
- Laundry facilities available
- Excellent study environment
- Walking distance to the UK campus
- Parking provided
- Residence manager on-site

The success rate of ALC graduates is among the best in the country. In fact, on average, 96% of our alumni are either employed or attending graduate schools just six months after graduation.

The Caney Cottage Scholarship Program provides scholarly ALC students with assistance in graduate and professional programs at the University of Kentucky and other universities. Caney Scholars attending the University of Kentucky are provided rent-free living quarters in the H. N. and Frances C. Berger Residence Hall (Caney Cottage), just a few blocks from the campus. Scholars attending other colleges or universities are granted cash scholarships toward expenses.

The prestigious Caney Cottage Scholarships are offered on a competitive basis. Applicants must have high academic standards, be of strong character, and show potential for leadership. The Caney Scholars’ professional successes are evident. Alice Lloyd “Caney” graduates serve as business leaders, teachers, doctors, lawyers, ministers, and in many other professions throughout Appalachia. Success is more than earning money or having power. At Alice Lloyd College, we believe success means serving your community by helping others become the best they can be and creating a better tomorrow for Appalachia and beyond. That’s why the Caney Cottage Scholarship Program continues to flourish.

Make Alice Lloyd College and the Caney Cottage Scholarship Program a pathway to your success.

“I’m a typical eastern Kentucky kid from a working class family who basically owes everything to Alice Lloyd. I truly believe if not for ALC and the Caney Cottage Scholarship, I wouldn’t be where I am today.”

Shane McDougal, ALC ‘96
Doctor, Letcher County, Kentucky