Announcements

R.A. Applications are needed for all five residence halls. Deadline is April 14th. Pick up forms in DSC 205.

Our last blood drive of the semester is scheduled for Wednesday, March 29th. Blood is urgently needed because so few people donate. However, ALC students have always stepped up to help replenish the supply. If you donate, you may be eligible to receive convocation credit as a community service as well as save lives.

March 27th: Movie night 7pm in CAC

March 30th: Dorm Room Checks

Riddle ????

Two Trees and an Island

You are standing at the edge of a lake. The lake is five hundred feet in diameter and there is a small island directly in the middle. There is a large tree next to you and a large tree in the middle of the island. You cannot swim and you have a little over five hundred feet in rope. How can you use the rope as a means to get to the island in the middle of the lake?

Convocations for March/April

What seems to us as bitter trials are often blessings in disguise.

—Oscar Wilde

My son, do not make light of the Lord's discipline, and do not lose heart when he rebukes you, because the Lord disciplines the ones he loves.

The RA Adventure

Are you ready to say YES to the adventure including the following?

Addressing questionable behavior—and having an impactful conversation as a result?

Daring to take chances — and risk mistakes?

Venturing into unknown territory — and never being the same?

Energizing people around you — and saving a dose for yourself?

Needing people — and having them need you?

Turning ideas into actions — and trying new things?

Urging residents to tap into their potential — and consider all their possibilities?

Respecting differences — and opening your world?

Encouraging the hopes of others — and keeping hope alive?

If you are ready for an adventure that will help develop your leadership skills and increase your ability to work with fellow students, come by DSC 205 and pick up an R.A. application. Deadline for submission is April 14th. Both males and females are needed.

Einstein's Riddle

The correct answer to the Einstein's riddle is the German.

Congratulations to Palmer Sexton for being the first student to successfully solve the Einstein Riddle and winning the $10 prize. Trenton Williams also solved the riddle but was not the first to come forward.

SOLUTION TO THE RIDDLE:

First, tie one end of the rope to the tree next to you. Then while you are holding the other end of the rope, walk all the way around the lake. This will wrap the rope around the tree in the center. When you return to your starting point, tie the end of the rope you are holding to the large tree. You can now use this makeshift rope bridge to hold on to and cross the Island.
