ADVISING NOTES
FOR
KCTCS Associate in Arts to Alice Lloyd College Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies
Effective Date August 1, 2024

Overview

Completion of the following curriculum will satisfy the requirements for the Associate in Arts degree at the Kentucky Community and Technical College System and leads to the Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies at Alice Lloyd College. Service learning, character-based, and a leadership education model called the Purpose Road Philosophy are an important component of an ALC education.

The prospect of taking on no debt to cover your tuition makes ALC a popular choice for students to consider. Due to this unique model and promise, many students apply.

Admission Requirements

Upon completion of the Associate of Arts degree as specified in the addendum, KCTCS graduates who meet admissions requirements and academic policies of Alice Lloyd College will be eligible for admission to the Bachelor degree program at ALC pursuant to this Agreement.

Students seeking admission to ALC must apply through the Office of Admissions and complete the following:

- A free application for admission (Admissions - Alice Lloyd College \(alc.edu\))
- Submit an official transcript of college credit from all colleges in which the student has enrolled, complete with final grades from the most recent term attended;
- Submit an official final high school transcript reflecting the graduation date;
- ACT and/or SAT scores, optional;
- Required interview with the Director of Admissions or Admissions Counselor; interview can be completed in-person on campus or virtually, and
- A completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Contact Admissions to schedule your campus visit:

Phone: (606) 368-6146

Alice Lloyd Degree Requirements

In order to receive a bachelor's degree from Alice Lloyd College, a student must meet the following criteria:

- Achievement of at least a “C” grade in each course in the department of the major, minor, professional education, related studies and in collateral requirements. (Additional requirements for each major are specified.)
- Completion of a minimum of 128 semester hours. (30 of the last 36 semester hours must be taken in residence at ALC.)
- The ALC cumulative GPA must be at least a 2.00.
- Satisfactory completion of curriculum, Student Work Program hours, convocation attendance, and institutional and departmental assessment requirements.
- Participation in Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

General Transfer Requirements

A student may transfer up to 90 credit hours from a regionally accredited KCTCS school toward a bachelor's degree program at Alice Lloyd College. Students must be in good standing when withdrawing from their former school and must have at least a 2.00 (C) academic average. Students transferring to ALC must earn a minimum of 38 credit hours (hours in residency required) at Alice Lloyd College to be awarded a degree.

Students must be in good standing with any former school(s) and must have at least a 2.00 (C) academic average. Alice Lloyd College will not transfer “D” grades. Transfer students who have earned a cumulative grade point average below 2.0 or those who have been dismissed previously from another institution of higher education may petition the ALC Vice President for Academic Affairs/Dean of the College for admission.

Tuition is guaranteed (covered) regardless of income for residents of 108 counties in Central Appalachia throughout five states (Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, and Tennessee). Students from outside the 108-county service area can request the Appalachian Leaders Scholarship in writing by demonstrating their desire to attend ALC and how the scholarship would assist with their education. All enrolled students pay $0 out-of-pocket toward tuition.
